

York County Seeks Volunteers To Help Replant Charles Brown Park Wetlands Area

Yorktown, Sept. 21 – York County needs volunteers to help with the planting of approximately 800 wetland plants as part of the development of the County's Wetlands Education and Interpretive Center at Charles Brown Park.

The wetlands planting is scheduled for October 9 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Interested individuals are invited to either begin the day with the team or join the project at any point during the day. Volunteers should be prepared to get very dirty and are welcome to come and stay as long as they can. Prospective participants should contact the Special Programs Division at 890-3883. Refreshments will be provided. Charles Brown Park is located off Route 238 in York County, across from the Naval Weapons Station.

For more information or to register, contact the York County Special Programs Division at 890-3883.
